CHURCH NEWS

All shall be well... As I write the news is full of talk about liberation day: Donald Trump's tariff-fuelled attempt at rebalancing the global economy. By the time you read this it's possible it will all have been a storm in a teacup... or the first horseman of the apocalypse will be on his way... or something in between. But I would be surprised if I could (with Julian of Norwich) utter the comforting prediction All shall be well and all shall be well, and all manner of things shall be well. Or perhaps I can? Julian, whose special day is 8 May, lived, as we do, in a time of deep fear and uncertainty. Born - it's thought - in the mid 1300s, the Black Death and the Peasants' Revolt cast a shadow over her home city of Norwich and over her life. And that's without the grave illness that threatened her in 1373, which is the context of the visions she later writes about.

Her medieval version of everything's gonna be alright emerges from a place of crisis, both personal and more widely. Yet for all its focus on suffering, it's rooted in a trust in God's providence, a deep sense of God's loving purposes for the world.

In the first of her visions, Julian sees what she calls a little thing, the size of a hazelnut in the palm of her hand. She asks, 'What may this be?' and hears the reply, 'It is all that is made...' In other words, it's the universe. As Julian marvels at its smallness and vulnerability, she begins to understand that everything exists through the love of God. God makes, protects, and loves. This picture of the universe, as it were held in God's hand, viewed with God's loving gaze, is the true setting for Julian's crisis and ours... this is the reason she (and we) can trust that all shall be well.

Best wishes

Lydia

Roy Ellis

1938—2025

Roy Ellis was born, brought up and lived his whole life in Hinxton. We asked some of the people who have known him over the years for their thoughts and memories. Martin remembers Roy and his brother riding their bikes in Night's Close by the river as children. He also recalls Roy being called "Fez" as a teenager because of his curly and unruly hair. Roy was a first-class bricklayer and the "best trowel in East Anglia". Many in the village have his handiwork in their houses, gardens and drives. Everyone he worked for appreciated his neatness and attention to detail.

Ros remembers him taking great care of his Mum and Uncle Henry who also lived in the village all their lives. It wasn't only family members he looked after. David recalls that he was always there as a friend in need and ready to help anyone. He was a very practical Parish councillor and trustee of the Ann Howsden Charity. He loved his garden which was as tidy as his bricklaying. He was always ahead of the game with his garden dug over, raked and planted meticulously.

Kate remembers him having set dates to plant certain vegetables, proven over the years to be reliable. He stuck to these religiously and his crops rarely failed. He was always helpful with his gardening tips and advice. And also generous with the garden produce, distributing tomatoes, beans and courgettes to all. He grew marrows especially for his friend Jane. She also remembers him as the mole catcher par excellence who delighted in success when it came, but the moles often evaded him.

Mike got to know and appreciate Roy when he was pivotal in preparing plants for sale in the Hinxton Garden Centre. Always welcoming and ready to give his time. He just loved to sit and chat.

Everyone says he was permanently good-natured with a cheeky smile, ready grin and often bad jokes. Peter feels that coffee mornings were always best when Roy was there. He would talk to anybody about anything. Every Tuesday he would visit David to put the world to rights. If the weather was good, they'd sit by the pond watching the fish. He helped David through some dark times.

Martin dropped in regularly for a coffee to catch up on the village gossip and to tease Mary.

Roy loved his cars, especially the Mercedes. He was never happier than with a pint in his hand at Ickleton Social Club, chatting to friends, and this is how he spent his last evening.

Several years ago he was interviewed for the village magazine. Asked what superpower he would like, he replied that he was happy as he was, which sums up his attitude to life. When asked who his ideal dinner guests would be, he simply said his whole family. Roy was a gentleman, kind, generous and good-natured. His passing leaves a huge hole in the village community, and especially in his family.

We will always cherish his memory and miss him dearly.

Tribute and Memories

From Lydia and Barry, Roy's son-in-law

Roy was born on 9 January 1938 in Hinxton, a village that he loved and lived in for almost the whole of his life. He grew up in no 2 Stone Cottages and spent his last days just round the corner at the house in North End Road, where he lived with Mary, his wife of almost sixty years. A Hinxton man, through and through. He attended the village school, then Sawston Village College. Although he was good at maths, school was not for him and before what would have been his final term Roy had begun an apprenticeship with a building firm, Lees of Shelford. From there, he moved on to other builders, before becoming self-employed in the last ten years of his working life.

In 1962 he met Mary, who had quite recently come over from Ireland to work in the area. There were a couple of possibly quite intentional "chance encounters", with Mary "accidentally" falling off her bike as Roy was walking down the road and Roy "accidentally" forgetting to take his tools home and needing to collect them from a friend's house.

With the help of these happy accidents, Mary and Roy became a couple and were married in 1965. They lived briefly in Shelford before moving to Red Lion Square in Hinxton, where they were next door to Roy's mum. There they had their daughters, Jane, Theresa and Yvonne, before moving to North End Road.

They settled in to enjoy the usual round of family life, including holidays on the east coast and to Barmouth. Never especially academic himself and naturally self-effacing, Roy was nevertheless proud of his daughters' achievements. At a sixth form parents' evening, when discussing Jane's plans to go to medical school, a teacher asked him whether he was also in the medical profession. "No, I'm a brick surgeon", Roy replied.

As the children grew up and left home, as well as working on his own house in North End Road and his beloved vegetable garden, Roy's skills were very much put into practice when visiting his daughters. His question on arrival was always "Have you got a list of jobs for me?" And they usually did.

Life was not without its sadness though, as in 2013 his daughter Yvonne died from a brain tumour, after a five year battle with illness. Roy and Mary were devastated.

Although a devoted husband, father and grandfather, Roy always looked beyond the domestic and into the community. He was a parish councillor for many years, as well as a member of the village hall committee and a trustee of the Ann Howsden Trust, a charity that provides affordable homes in the village, for over forty years. And – unlike many of us – he was a practical and proactive trustee, always available to fix whatever needed mending.

Roy Ellis: a family man, a community man and a Hinxton man.

"We first met Roy not long after we moved into the village in 1978. We asked around if anyone knew a builder who could lay a patio for us. 'You need Roy' came the reply. So, we got in touch and Roy came. We can still picture him, lying on our sheepskin rug, chin on hands, completely at ease. We were instantly charmed.

We have been fond of Roy, and his lovely wife Mary, ever since. He was genial and good natured with a twinkle in his eye.

He loved his family, his garden and his beer.

He was such a lovely man."

Hinxton Village Flagpole

Back in Use - 21st April 2025

Just to let you know that the village flagpole (situated just inside the churchyard) has been 're-lanyarded' and is useable again. To mark the occasion (also the birthday of the late Queen) a Union Flag was raised, but this was lowered again as a mark of respect for Pope Francis who has passed away.

Many thanks to all those who helped make this possible, both today and when the flagpole was first moved to the village from Hinxton Hall some years ago . . .

Hinxton Remembers

.. the 80th anniversary of the end of World War 2

on Thursday May the 8th a VE Day commemorative flag will be raised at 9 am on the village flagpole (situated in the churchyard near the war memorial) - the flag will be lowered at 10 pm that evening which is when the total surrender of Germany finally took effect in 1945.

on Friday August the 15th a VJ Day commemorative flag will be raised at 9 am and then lowered at dusk to signify the formal announcement by the Japanese emperor of 'unconditional surrender' and the end of WW2, at last.

on both occasions the church clock bell will be tolled ten times (six years of war and four dead from the village) - at midday on May 8th and at dusk on August 15th.

on Sunday November the 9th, there will be the traditional War Memorial service at 11 am, and at 7 pm a Remembrance Tribute, including performances of songs and poetry in honour of those from the village who perished in the war - a memorable and moving night of music and poetry.

NB. Everyone is welcome to attend any/all of the above events.

ANN HOWSDEN CHARITY

Call for Trustees – May 2025

The Charity of Ann Howsden was set up in 1631 when Ann Howsden, who is buried in the churchyard in Hinxton, bequeathed the income of her estate in Moggerhanger, Bedfordshire to benefit the 'poor and needy' of Hinxton. This land has all been sold and the current assets of the Charity include four bungalows (numbers 2, 4, 6 and 8 Duxford Road), three of which are let out at affordable rents to people with a strong association with Hinxton.

The Objectives of the Charity, which were updated and approved by the Charity Commission in 2020 are:

- The relief of persons resident in the Parish of Hinxton who are in need, hardship or distress.
- To benefit the residents of Hinxton by providing or assisting in the provision of facilities in the interests of social welfare for recreation and leisure time occupation with the objective of improving the conditions of life of the residents.

The Ann Howsden Charity constitution states that, in addition to the ex officio Trustee (the vicar), there should be 8 Trustees who are appointed for a (renewable) term of 4 years. The Charity is currently looking for potential Trustees to fill an immediate vacancy and another that is likely to arise towards the end of the year. There are no specific criteria other than being a resident of Hinxton who cares about the welfare and quality of life of all Hinxtonians and who will respect the privacy of beneficiaries. It is our aim to be able collectively to represent the interests of all villagers to help the Charity meet its Objectives and it is therefore valuable to have Trustees with diverse backgrounds, experience and skills. The current trustees are Andy Brown, Chloe Brown, Chris Elliott, Benoit Genevier, Jacqui Gruby, Jenny Goodwin and Ian Pearson. In addition to the Trustees, Alison King and Nicholas Cliffe facilitate the smooth running of the Charity as Secretary and Treasurer, respectively.

The requirements of being a Trustee need not be particularly onerous in terms of time commitment. Meetings are held in the evening on a quarterly basis, with additional meetings/email discussions to deal with any issue requiring immediate attention. Trustees divide up tasks (e.g. drafting and updating documents, liaison with agents for the rental properties, management of investments) between them on a voluntary basis according to their interests and experience. The Charity has developed and will continue to update policies and procedures to help meet the responsibilities laid out by the Charity Commission and will ensure that new Trustees are made familiar with these.

If you are interested in becoming a Trustee, please send a letter of application with information on your association with Hinxton and the contribution you feel you could make as a Trustee by email to annhowsdencharity@outlook.com or hard copy to the Ann Howsden Trust, The Grange, 8 Hall Farm Barns, Hunts Lane, Hinxton. Please feel free to reach out to any of the current Trustees for an informal discussion prior to submitting your application, which should be received by the 31st July 2025.

Parish Council Update

Notes from Parish Council Meeting

14th April 2025

Updates

Wellcome Trust Campus Development.

There is a liaison group meeting next week at Hinxton Hall. Mike Boagey has been talking to the Social Club on the Campus and they seem keen that Hinxton residents have use of some of the facilities on the present site. These include the tennis courts, Social Club, Gym, Bollywood dancing and Taekwondo. There is the issue of security and accessing the site. MB to find out more details.

Village Hall extension.

The Moses have drafted an initial design of the new Hall. This will be shown to the PC at the next meeting before being presented to residents.

Wetlands Committee.

A meeting was held recently, Minutes will be posted on the PC website once received.

Playground.

Bolts for the seesaw seat have arrived, Clerk to arrange having this repaired. Safety inspection due this month

Quiet Lanes.

More data has been received but more is needed, the survey form can be found in previous Hinxton Newsletter.

Highways.

A505 report. More talks to be held as the current plan not fit for purpose. Probably hear something in June after elections. The path to Whittlesford station should be in with these talks of improving A505 and the McDonalds roundabout.

The Highways depot at Whittlesford is due to be moved. Clerk has applied through the Local Highway Improvement grant for Hunts Lane to become one-way, from High Street to A1301. She has also applied for the 20mph zone to include all Hinxton and Hunts Lane.

River/weir report.

Martin Fordham is to give up responsibility for the sluices after he and his father before him have looked after them for more than 50 years. It has been an amazing service to the community and we thank him for all his time and efforts. Volunteers may be needed in the future to raise and lower the sluice gates, The gates themselves are hard to move due to the tree roots causing the gap for the gates to narrow. A meeting is to be arranged between Peter McDonald, Cambridge Past Present and Future, Wellcome Trust and the Environment Agency to discuss the future plans, including a possible new weir.

Buying a speed restriction unit:

Clerk has been looking into options and costings. A walk round of the village is to be done to see where it could go, the plan is for it to be moved to different locations in the village.

New items for discussion

Installing another dog poo bin at northern end of the Village.

It was agreed to buy 2 new freestanding litter/dog poo bins. One to replace the one near the Mill, one to be at the Ford parking area and the small bin from the Mill to be located somewhere at the North End Road/High St area- maybe at the bus stop or near there? Final location to be decided.

Applying to make the Red Lion an Asset of Community Value.

Clerk to follow this up.

ANPR

Can we have data when the units are installed by U & C? This will be asked at the next Liaison meeting.

Buy an editing tool subscription.

It was agreed to buy this subscription as it is needed to edit and format documents on the website. To be shared cost with Babraham Parish Council, £30 per annum each council.

Purchase flag and rope for VE Day celebrations.

This was voted on and all in agreement.

Recipe Corner!

Potatoes Dauphinoise

This is one of the best potato dishes I've ever tasted - and so easy!

Serves 6 as a side

1 kg Maris Piper (or any all-rounder) potatoes
300 ml double cream
300 ml whole milk
40g butter
1 or 2 smallish cloves garlic, grated
Whole nutmeg for grating
Salt and pepper

Peel the potatoes and slice very, very thinly. I use a food processor with a slicing attachment. In a large, shallow gratin dish, arrange a layer of potato slices, a sprinkle of garlic, pepper and salt, then another layer of potatoes and seasoning. Mix the cream and milk together, pour over the potatoes, sprinkle with some freshly grated nutmeg, fleck the butter over the surface and bake at 160°C for about an hour and a half. Allow to stand for 2-3 minutes then serve immediately.

NB My husband dislikes garlic so I sometimes leave it out, it still tastes delicious.

PS that pic is not supposed to be Linda... !

1st Whittlesford & Duxford Beavers, Cubs and Scouts need your help!

We need help with Explorers (age 14-18 years on Friday 19:30-21:30). Sadly, this section will cease to exist if no new volunteers are found by the end of the summer term.

If you or someone you know can help please get in touch. They do not have to be a parent or have any scouting experience just lots of enthusiasm!

Our Javelins Cubs (age 8-10.5 Thursday 18:30-20:00) could also really use additional help.

Lastly, if you know people with young children, we have got spaces in both our Beaver sections Wildwood Beavers - Wednesday 18:30-19:30 and Forest Beavers - Friday 18:15-19:15. Beavers is open to boys and girls aged 6-7yrs, leaving after they turn 8.

Bridge End Gardens
Saffron Walden

We know that being outside is good for our wellbeing, both mental and physical. Besides the open countryside, we are fortunate in The Hundred Parishes to have parks and gardens where we can walk, sit and enjoy nature. I will mention just a few.

Bridge End Gardens in Saffron Walden was created by a local businessman and Quaker, Francis Gibson, in the 1840s. It is now managed by Saffron Walden Town Council. Delights to explore include the hedge maze, rose garden and Dutch garden.

The Gardens of Easton Lodge in Little Easton have limited opening hours which can be found on our website www.hundredparishes.org.uk. They were designed by Harold Peto in 1902 for the Countess of Warwick who lived at Easton Lodge.

In Sawbridgeworth, Pishiobury Park was redesigned by Capability Brown in the 18th century as an enclosed park. It is a registered historic park and includes wet woodland, grazed fields, an oak walk, meadows and part of the River Stort.

Birchanger Wood comprises 69 acres of ancient coppiced woodland, managed and owned by the Birchanger Wood Trust. Three miles of all-weather, wheelchair-friendly paths make it easy to explore.

In Stansted Mountfitchet, the Aubrey Buxton Nature Reserve is a 25 acre woodland with six man-made ponds. It was originally part of the park and garden of Aubrey Buxton's house. He was a co-founder of the World Wildlife Trust and donated the land to Essex Wildlife Trust. Today you can enjoy circular walks passing the ponds through the wood.

June is the month when many private gardens open to the public, even groups of gardens in Duxford and Ickleton – details appear on the What's On section of our website.

We hope you enjoy the summer and explore some of our wonderful parks and gardens.

the Insurance Men will play an energetic high octane set, so bring your dancing ears, boots and enjoy.

David Parr House

We are an independent charity founded in 2014 to care for and preserve 186 Gwydir Street in Cambridge, a house previously owned by a working-class Victorian artist, David Parr. The house is a unique survival of Arts and Crafts workmanship layered with 20th-century social history and was lived in by the same family for over 125 years.

The House is now open to visitors, and we host events, workshops and exhibitions. Alongside our artistic programme and work to care for the house, we also undertake important research into David Parr and the decorating company he worked for, F R Leach & Sons. The company was renowned for creating Arts & Crafts interiors for churches and grand buildings nationally and around Cambridge city and the surrounding villages. We are still learning much about the company from our visitors and about the creative industries in Cambridge from people whose parents and grandparents worked in them.

There are many ways to get involved with the project, including visiting, volunteering, donating, attending events and spreading the word.

You can find more about us on our website here: <https://davidparrhouse.org/>
